Description of Placement and Population Served:

Type of clients served
Regis University is a small, private, religiously-affiliated college. The majority of clients served are traditionally-aged college students (18-22 years old) as well as older Accelerated Nursing, Doctoral Pharmacy and Doctoral Physical Therapy students.

Culturally diverse populations served
African American 2%; American Indian <1%; Asian American 8%; Euro-American 80%; Hispanic American 8%; Middle-Eastern American >1%; Gay/Lesbian/Bisexual 3%.
Religious diversity: Roman Catholic 59%; Other 40%.
Supervisor's experience in training students to work with culturally diverse groups: Graduate and professional development, post-graduate experience.

Services provided
Assessment: Assessment experience is primarily limited to substance abuse assessments which involve an on-line psychoeducational component and use of the SASSI and SOCRATES. Clinical: While the mandated substance abuse cases are more short term and solution focused in nature, the typical counseling center clients range from 8-30 sessions. We have no session limits and students receive our services for free. Our client's average number of sessions is 8 but often practicum students will have several weekly clients for the duration of their placement allowing for strong long-term treatment experience. Outreach: Programming and consultation with residence life staff, athletics, faculty regarding issues of suicide/mental health, substance abuse, violence including sexual assault, body image/eating disorders, sexual behavior, wellness, stress management, fitness, and nutrition.

Duties of psychology trainee
Treatment/Assessment of clients addressing a myriad of mental health issues. Trainee will carry a caseload comprised of three-quarter mental health cases (approximately 7-9 clients) and one-quarter mandated substance abuse clients (approximately 3-4 clients) at any given time. Trainee will provide psychoeducational programs to academic classes on multiple occasions, primarily during the fall semester. Trainee will be responsible for keeping all paperwork and client statistics up to date. Trainee's sessions will be videotaped and tapes will be shown in supervision and to the counseling center staff on a monthly basis for increased supervision/consultation.

Psychology trainee qualifications needed
Looking for a student with interest in counseling center work. Must be comfortable in being somewhat independent and self-starting. Will have good counseling skill foundation yet open to learning more counseling skills and theory through supervision. Helpful to have experience working with mandated clients and/or substance abuse treatment. Must be comfortable in providing outreach presentation and programming as well as in working collaboratively with other departments on campus.

Application deadline

The application process will take place at the beginning of March. To apply, please send a resume and cover letter via email or US Mail to Jina Jensen by Friday, March 5, 2010.
