WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

First, let's break down the differences between accelerated online and evening versus full-time campus learning.

	Accelerated Online and Evening	Full-Time Campus
Best Option For	Transfer students interested in completing a bachelor's degree in accelerated evening or online formats. This includes undergraduate certificate, and non-degree seeking applicants at the undergraduate level.	Transfer students coming from another regionally accredited college or university applying to a full-time, undergraduate program on our residential campus.
Tuition Billing	Pay per course	Pay block tuition
Course Length	5-week, 7-week and 8-week accelerated courses	16-week semester courses
Start Dates	Multiple start dates per year	January and August start dates
Financial Aid Eligibility	6 credit hours per term required for consideration	12 credit hours per semester required for consideration
Student Experience	Attend evening classes on campus or complete your program online, from the convenience of your home.	Attend daytime classes on campus. Experience student clubs and organizations with on-campus housing options available.

CHOOSE YOUR PATH

We know that individual academic journeys vary widely, and that there isn't a one-size-fits-all approach to achieving your goals. Your chosen degree program will help determine which approach is right for you — some programs are only offered in one format.¹
