

SCHOLARSHIP MONTH REGIS UNIVERSITY

Ignatian Leadership Scholarship

Eligibility

Recipients must major in Religious Studies. This scholarship award is for $12,000 per year and is renewable for four years. In order to maintain the scholarship, students must hold a 3.0 cumulative GPA throughout their time as a student at Regis University. This award may be used toward an approved one-semester study abroad program.

All scholarship award recipients will be announced and notified by Friday, March 17, 2023.

Requirements

Submit an essay limited to 500-750 words, or two pages maximum, plus a title page, by the deadline below. Please include all of the following information in your title page: First and Last Name, High School, Phone Number, Email Address, Mailing Address

Essay Prompt:

What does religious leadership mean to you, and how would a Regis education in Religious Studies help you to develop as a religious leader?

In your essay, please consider your past and present experiences of religious leadership, as well as your goals and dreams for your college experience and beyond.

Formatting Requirements:

- Font: 12-point Times New Roman
- Accepted file types: .pdf, .doc, .docx
- Name file(s) with your full name, high school and essay title
Example: Jane Smith_High School_Ignatian Leadership Award
- There is no need to zip or compress your files

Deadline and Submission Instructions

Friday, February 24, 2023 at 5 p.m. MT.

Submit your essay via email to Russell Arnold at rarnold@regis.edu. The email subject line and document title must include your full name, high school and essay title (example: Jane Smith_High School_Ignatian Leadership Award). You will receive a reply message as confirmation that your email was received within four business days.